Little Taste of Britain Drive and Lunch

On September 17, 2011 several of our club members got together to enjoy a drive to a "Taste of Britain" in Layton, Utah.

We all met at the State Capital building and took a leisurely drive on the back roads up to a "Taste of Britain", which offers a variety of English dishes. One of the favorites being the English fish and chips. The portion of fish you get is huge and takes me back to my memories of England.

Taste of Britain also offers a variety of English food items that you can purchase. Everyone enjoyed the good food and the cozy English atmosphere. After our luncheon, some of the members headed over to the Hill Aerospace Museum where a car show "Wings and Wheels" was being held.

Mike Cady was showing his 1954 XK-120, so we stopped by to give him support and bring him some of the English fish and chips the rest of us had enjoyed. Mike was thrilled when he won the People's Choice Award. Congrats Mike.

Those in attendance for this activity were J. and Kay Jennings, the Jennings daughter Michelle and husband Ed, Ken and Joann Borg, Duane and Leeann Allred, Glen and Joy Hawkins, Susie Cady and one or two other members whose names we don't have — sorry.

Fall Drive Scheduled For Saturday October 15

The WMJR will make its farewell to the season drive on Saturday October 15.

We will be driving up Parley's Canyon and then on to the back roads to Taggart's Grill for lunch just East of Morgan.

club favorite, as are the good food and pleasant surroundings at Taggart's.

Everyone should meet at 9:30 a.m. at the old Kmart parking lot near the northwest corner of Parleys Way and Foothill Drive.

This is a scenic,

fun drive that is always a

Keeping the spirit of Jaguar alive...

Hallowe'en Party Saturday October 29 at the Jennings

Once again the Jennings have graciously offered their warm and spacious party room for a spooky WMJR Hallowe'en party.

It will be spooky in two respects: everyone is encouraged to wear an outrageous hat, and to bring a fiendish pot luck offering.

There is no reason to tell Kay and J what you'll be bringing in either regard, unless you plan on Funeral Potatoes. Yes, those are quite appropriate for the season, but it would be way too scary for more than one such treat (or trick).

The Jennings home is at 6046 Fontaine Bleu Drive, phone 801-274-2671. This is just north of Vine Street, near the Van Winkle Expressway.

Be there or be the target of voodoo doll pinings,
